

When Our Schools Opened

Students of all ages first went to school in a single Putnam City building in 1914. Since that time, the district has grown to include 18 elementary schools, five middle schools, three traditional high schools and one alternative high school. The district's newest school is Kenneth Cooper Middle School, which opened in 1993.

School	Year Opened
Apollo Elementary School	1970
Arbor Grove Elementary School	1914 (current building opened in 1952)
Central Elementary School	1914 (current building opened in 1931)
Coronado Heights Elementary School	1959
James L. Dennis Elementary School	1979
Ralph Downs Elementary School	1990
Harvest Hills Elementary School	1975
Hilldale Elementary School	1959
D.D. Kirkland Elementary School	1957
Lake Park Elementary School	1966
Northridge Elementary School	1980
Overholser Elementary School	1964
Rollingwood Elementary School	1963
Tulakes Elementary School	1967
Western Oaks Elementary School	1961
Wiley Post Elementary School	1973
Will Rogers Elementary School	1983
Windsor Hills Elementary School	1961

(Middle Schools and High Schools listed on page 2)

Capps Middle School	1914 (rebuilt in 1973 after 1971 fire)
Kenneth Cooper Middle School	1993
Hefner Middle School	1966
Mayfield Middle School	1974
Western Oaks Middle School	1963
Putnam City High School	1914 (current building opened in 1958)
Putnam City North High School	1978
Putnam City West High School	1968